MESSAGE FROM THE DEAN

DR. CHANINTORN JITTAWIRIYA NUKOON
DEAN
Graduate School of eLearning (GSeL)
Assumption University
Bangkok, Thailand

Let me first wish a very Happy New Year 2018 and congratulate all of you for your contributions to Assumption University-eJournal of Interdisciplinary Research (AU-eJIR). On behalf of Graduate School of eLearning (GSeL) I thank you for your efforts and your faith in the quality of our journal.

eJIR aims to promote original research in few specific areas, such as, Information Technology, Multidisciplinary Science & Technology, Digital Learning, Economics, and Management. As an open access journal its main objective is to cultivate fruitful dialogue among academics, researchers and graduate students.

On this special occasion of the 3rd year of publication of AU-eJIR I appreciate the efforts of all the academicians, researchers and graduate students from India, Nepal, Nigeria, Philippines, Thailand, USA and Vietnam. In this edition we also include few papers from our graduate students studying at Assumption University.

I wish all the success and glory to eJIR and thank the Managing Editor for putting together this new edition of 2018.

I am sure that in the year 2018 we will have many more interesting research papers covering variety of themes.

Assistant Professor Chanintorn Jittawiriyanukoon, D.Eng.
Dean
Graduate School of eLearning
JANUARY 8, 2018